3 There is no objection to raise the age limit to 40, subject to the provisions of art 341 M S R But it has to be noted that as a rule, men of advanced age ought never to be admitted to the Govt Service except upon public grounds of a Special character

Subl DM 247 16-5-11 4 To entertain men at 40 and above means at 55 would mean that the pension they get will be $\frac{15}{60} - \frac{10}{40}$ or $\frac{5}{60}$ or $\frac{1}{4} - \frac{1}{16}$ or $\frac{3}{16}$ths of their pay. There is nomerit in the objection to entertain men older than the Statutory limit whenever necessary in the interests of Service but a general exemption does not appear to be called for. Each case may come up for disposal according to its merits & the person himself is desirous to enter into Service at a given rate of salary)

A 5 I agree with the views expressed at A above.

OFFICE OF INSPECTOR GENERAL OF EDUCATION IN MYSORE

No 9441/734

Bangalore 26th April 1911

From

~~J WEIR Esq M A~~

The Inspector General of Education in Mysore

To C S Balasurdaram Iyer Esquire, B A ,

Offg Secretary to the Government of H H the Maharaja of Mysore, General and Revenue Departments, Bangalore

SIR

I have the honour to inform you that by Government Order No 9894-5/Edn 188-06-13 of 2nd May 1910 sanctioning the revision of the ministerial establishment of the Government Oriental Library, Mysore, K Rangaswami Iyengar was appointed as the fifth Pandit of the Library On the date of the Government Order from which his employment took effect, Rangaswami Iyengar was more than 25 years of age, in accordance with the medical certificate furnished with his first pay bill I request therefore that his entertainment in Government Service may be kindly sanctioned with effect from the date mentioned above, in accordance with article 34 of the Mysore Service Regulations

2 In this connection, the Curator of the Oriental Library proposes that the age limit of Pandits to be newly entertained in the Oriental Library may be raised from 25 to 40 as in the case of Sanskrit teachers of the Education Department I support the recommendation of the Curator on the ground that the nature of the work done in the Library necessitates the employment of Pandits of proved merit and special capacity, in whose case the limit of age prescribed Government operates as a bar to their entertainment Under ese circumstances I recommend that the concession allowed by vernment Order No 2187-00/Edn 15-07-3 of 5th September 1907 in case of Music and Drawing Masters, Sanskrit Teachers, Mistresses istresses of Girls' Schools etc , may be extended to the Pandits to be newly entertained in the Oriental Library

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

For Inspector General
